The Green, Green Grass of Home

He covers the heavens with clouds, prepares rain for the earth, makes grass grow on the hills. Psalm 147:8

Mow, mow, mow your lawn
 'til you want to scream.
 Ahhhhhh!

For the first time since I moved to Dover, I am mowing my own lawn and doing all my own yard work. I decided I could use the exercise. The fresh air and sunshine would be added benefits. I could do it. It would be good for me.

What was I thinking?

I used to mow and do all my yardwork when I lived in Louisville. Thursday evening or Friday morning, there I'd be cutting the grass and tending my flowerbeds. The thing is, I had only half the yard there as I do here. There I had barely a quarter acre. Here I have close to half. It's a big difference. A real big difference. Instead of taking an average of an hour and 15 minutes to mow my lawn, it now takes over two and a half hours to do the job. Just writing about it makes me tired.

At first, I had a lawn service. They did were exceptionally reliable, friendly and courteous, and did superb work. I miss them.

But, I made a decision and for now I'm going to stick with it. My doctor is all for it. He said, "That's a good start?" A good start? I'm afraid of what else he may have in mind at our next visit. They're building a few new house down the street on Crater Avenue. Maybe I can carry some lumber and shingle a couple roofs?

Actually, I don't mind mowing my lawn. Sometimes, I look forward to it. It can be refreshing and therapeutic. When I'm cutting the grass, I get a chance put aside other concerns and take time to enjoy God's wonderful creation.

Sometimes, now don't laugh, I even compose little snippets of poetry. Once, the song, He's Got the Whole World in His Hands, played itself over and over again in my mind. So, I decided to make up some new verses to the tune.

My favorite is:

He's got the birds and the bees, in His hands.
 He's got the flowers and the trees, in His hands.
 He's got the wind and breeze, in His hands.
 He's got the whole world in His hands.

Who'da thunk mowing grassing could be an exercise in literary creativity? It

Since You Asked

Since You Asked...

Pastor, I enjoyed meeting Jethro during your Father's Day sermon. He sure had some wise, fatherly advice for Moses. Can you tell us more about him?

Sure! I'd be pleased to do that.

In Exodus 18, Jethro visits the Israelite camp near Mount Sinai where he reunites Moses with his wife Zipporah and his two sons, Gershom and Eliezer. Moses had sent his wife and sons to his father-in-law's home in land of Midian to keep them safe while he confronted Pharaoh in seeking the deliverance of the Israelites from their slavery in Egypt.

Moses had married Zipporah while he tended her father's great flock as a shepherd. He had fled Egypt after killing, in a fit of anger, an Egyptian who was beating an Israelite slave. Moses fled to Midian and met Zipporah at a well. She then convinced her father Jethro to take him on as a shepherd (Exodus 2:11-22). It was in Midian that Moses would encounter God in the "Burning Bush" and the Exodus of God people begins.

Scripture tells us that in addition to being a wealthy shepherder, Jethro was also a Midian priest (Exodus 18:1). By many accounts, he is the Father of the Druze religion. The Druze religion is a monotheistic, Abrahamic religion found chiefly in Syria and adjoining lands. In other words, the Druze believe in one, true God and share many of the same religious beliefs as the descendants of Abraham. Remember, Abraham had two sons, Ishmael and Isaac. Isaac was a Jewish patriarch. Though Ishmael was not, he would have relayed his father Abraham's beliefs to his descendants. These beliefs would then evolve into the Druze religion.

It's interesting to note, the Jews were not the only Abrahamic, monotheistic (One, true God) religion in the Middle East. There were others. Yet, it was the Jews (Israelites) that God chose to reveal the fullness of His glory and truth.

Dear Friends,
On behalf of Concordia Theological Seminary I thank you for your recent donation. Gifts, such as yours, allow us to provide the finest theological education to the future pastors, deaconesses, and missionaries who will serve The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod and our partner churches worldwide. I thank God for you and ask for your continued support. Together we partner in an essential mission of forming servants in Jesus Christ who teach the faithful, reach the lost and care for all.
Your servant in Christ,
Rev. Dr. Lawrence R. Rast Jr.

Thank you for all the birthday cards and good wishes on my birthday this year. Your many expressions of kindness, support and Christian love are much appreciated. May God's blessings of peace and joy fill your summer.

Thanks again,

A Bundle of Blessings

Congratulations to Shane and Kelsie (Baker) Gunnoe on the birth of their daughter, Brystal Ann Gunnoe on June 3. She entered the world weighing 8 lbs. 6 oz. and measuring 19.6 inches long. Brystal is the sister of Brayden Gunnoe and the grandson of John and Tracy Schlegel and Woody Gunnoe and Jeannine Gunnoe.

We pray this family is fully blessed with God's goodness as Brystal Ann grows in God's love and grace. Congratulations,

Dear friends,
On behalf of everyone at Personal and Family Counseling (PFCS). I want to express my sincere thanks and appreciation for your $700 donation for as sensory room. We are very grateful for your support of our work in Tuscarawas and Carroll Counties.

PFCS has helped thousands of children and families to overcome or prevent serious social and emotional problems while forging stronger, more positive relationships.

Again, thank you for your contribution. Your generosity enables us to provide services to those who need it most. Because of committed people like you, we can build pathways for growth, achievement and lifelong success.

Sincerely, Cindy Naegele

Vice President of Advancement and Communications

I want to send my deepest gratitude for the support, cards, flowers, visits and prayers that I received from Pastor Rice and my church family during my past illness and recovery. A special thank you to my son-in-law Paul and my daughters, Linda & Nancy for all that you have done and continue to do. Words cannot express how much these gestures can provide encouragement and hope during a challenging time. May you be richly blessed by our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ!

Members of Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church and Pastor Rice,

Greetings to you in the name of the Risen Lord Jesus Christ!

Thank you all for your ongoing support of the Fort Wayne students through your support of books.

Summer Greek classes begin on June 3rd and a new group of students will learn and inwardly digest the Greek language. This beginner course is often described as putting your mouth over a fire hydrant and trying to swallow for 10 weeks. In the end eyes and minds are opened to biblical writings in new and wonderful ways.

Thank you!

GROCERY BAG MINISTRY

Thanks to all who have volunteered to be packers for the Grocery Bag Ministry this year.

Donations to the Food Pantry have increased in response to a greater need for our food bags. In May, we distributed 104 bags, and have already distributed 92 in June. We are seeing a greater demand for this outreach program. Monetary and food donations are very much appreciated.

What goes into a bag to feed the hungry? The basic food items are: peanut butter, canned meat, vegetables, fruit, cereal, soup, macaroni & cheese, canned white potatoes, spaghetti sauce and spaghetti noodles. We also pack a roll of toilet paper and a bar of soap when available.

We welcome all packaged/canned donations. We will pack any kind of soup, fruit, vegetable, soap or toilet paper that is donated, as well as extra items not on the list. Grocery size paper bags are also needed.

Thank you to all who bring food in for the grocery bags that are filled each month. Look in the Sunday bulletins to see items which are most urgently needed.

OUTREACH NEWS... HERE'S YOUR CHANCE TO BE A BLESSING TO OTHERS

We at Grace have volunteered to provide one meal per month — the 4th Sunday of each month — and need volunteers to provide the meal and to deliver it to the Friends of the Homeless of Tuscarawas County which is a group of concerned citizens from various churches and social service agencies in the county who have recognized the need to assist persons experiencing homelessness. The residents eat dinner at 6:00 each evening. All tableware is provided by the shelter, and they ask that if we are just dropping the food off to bring it in disposable pans.

If you are unable to deliver your portion of the meal, please contact someone else who has signed up to deliver food.

Let's continue to work together as the body of Christ and serve our brothers and sisters in need.

New sign up sheets are posted for the August's meal to the homeless shelter.

Please sign up on the bulletin board in the narthex.

PERSONAL CARE KITS

The power of a small package

Personal Care Kits especially help cleanliness and prevent disease outbreaks that can so frequently happen in foreign countries or right here in the United States after natural disasters. LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF is asking congregation participation to help restock their supply of personal care kits. Consider making a kit or dropping off one or more of the items listed below to the church office. Thanks for helping!

Personal care items that go into each kit are:

Personal Care Kits

- 1 light weight bath towel
- 20" X 40" to 52" X 27" (dark color)
- 2 bath size bars of soap
- 1 wide tooth comb
- 1 adult size toothbrush
- 1 nail clipper with file

Thank you to the volunteers who prepared and delivered food to the Homeless Shelter on June 23rd, 2019.

July's dinner at the Homeless Shelter is on Sunday, July 28th, at 6:00 pm.

The sign-up sheet is posted in the Narthex. We have cut down on the expense of the items needed (less meat, more casseroles) or have divided the donations into smaller units to make it financially easier for you to donate. Please check to see how you can help.

Replenishing the Children's Worship Bags

Our worship bag continues to be a blessing to children and parents in our worship each week! Most of the 10 bags are used every Sunday. The bags serve as a way for parents to have their young children in worship with them while they get a chance to worship. We will be purchasing new books, toys and crayons for the bags soon. If you would be interested in providing money for the purchase of these items you may make a donation by placing it in a special offering envelope with worship bags written on it. If paying by check please remember to write Children's Worship Bags in the memo line. Thank you for continuing to support this ministry.
