Old Lang's Sign

Praise the Lord! How good it is to sing praises to our God; for He is gracious and song of praise is fitting. Psalm 147:1

We've probably all heard of the little boy who happily sang from his pew about Gladly, the cross-eyed bear (Gladly the cross I'd bear). But it's not just little tykes who sing the darndest things, adults do it, too.

Can you imagine? Someone actually sang A maze of grapes, How sweet and round... (Amazing grace, how sweet the sound...) I wonder if that person ever found his way out of that fruity labyrinth. At least he won't go hungry.

Christmas season is particularly vulnerable to musical malapropisms. As the children's choir sang "Away in a Manger," one young singer was sure The cattle are glowing... In another instance, a child was confidently positive The cattle are loaded... (The cattle are lowing, the poor baby wakes...) Either the cows were radioactive or they had indulged in a bit too much Christmas cheer. Whatever the case, it sure makes for an interesting manger scene. Maybe the wise men should be bringing a Geiger counter, iodide and aspirin.

One of my favorite gaffes comes from "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing!" Though some youngsters may sing of Harold the Angel, it was an adult who insisted the carol's lyrics included Peace on earth and mercy mild, God and sinners rest a while (God and sinners reconcile). This rendering surely invites a yuletide theological discussion.

And there are more; many, many more. I'm sure you, dear reader, could certainly add a few of your own to the list.

Though we try to honor the lyricist's artfully chosen words and best intentions, sometimes we just don't get it exactly right. What's far more important, though, is what's in our hearts. We when we sing hymns or intone a carol, we joyfully resound, filled and overflowing with praise, thanksgiving and holy reverence to our ever good and always gracious God.

As we enter 2018, may we remember the words of St. Paul and his encouragement to "Rejoice in the Lord always! Again I say, Rejoice!" (Philippians 4:4) Taken to heart, this gladsome guidance will make for an especially happy New Year in the Lord.

By the way, I knew Old Lang. He was an old acquaintance of mine. He lived with Mrs. Lang in a beautiful house he built himself along the Ohio River just west of Hanging Rock. Old Lang's sign was in his front yard. But for the life of me, what it said I can never bring to mind.

Since You Asked...

I've enjoyed your columns about Bible verses. I know the shortest verse in the Bible is John 11:35, "Jesus wept." So, I'm wondering what is the longest verse?

The longest verse in the Bible is Esther 8:9. It contains 78 words. Rather than print them here, I invite you to look them up. The verse is part of the passage detailing Esther's rescue of the Jews from the deceitful and wrathful plotting of Mordecai.

What would you guess is the longest book in the Bible? Psalms has the most chapters with 150, but it is not the longest book. That distinction goes to Jeremiah with 33,002 words. Genesis' 32,046 words take second place. Psalms comes in third with 30,147. Remember some of the Psalms are short, some with only a few verses. Psalm 118 has only 2 verses, which makes it the shortest chapter in the Bible.

Psalm 119 is the longest chapter in the Bible. It has 176 verses and includes

A Prayer for the New Year

Good and gracious God,

As we begin this New year, we thank you for this earth, our home; for the wide sky and the blessed sun, for the ocean and streams, for the towering hills and the whispering wind, for the trees and green grass.

We thank you for our senses by which we hear the songs of birds, and see the splendor of fields of golden wheat, and taste autumn's fruit, rejoice in the feel of snow, and smell the breath of spring flowers.

Grant us a heart opened wide to all this beauty; and save us from being so blind that we pass unseeing when even the common thorn bush is aflame with your glory.

For each new dawn is filled with infinite possibilities for new beginnings and new discoveries. Life is constantly changing and renewing itself.

In this new day of new beginnings with God, all things are possible. We are restored and renewed in a joyous awakening to the wonder that our lives are and, yet, can be.

All glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and forever.
Amen.

Endowment Annual Report

GRACE LUTHERAN ENDOWMENT FUND

2017 ANNUAL REPORT

The Grace Endowment trustees are pleased to announce that the 2017 donations exceeded $69,000. Please see the attached treasurer's report for details of donations. Rebecca Eberle and Mark Wilhelm, trust officers from Huntington Bank, will meet with our trustees for an annual review at the January 2018 meeting. The Trustees voted to have the 2017 investment strategy and review performed in January instead of July.

The Grace Endowment fund was established to fund Christian endeavors within our congregation, community and the world. The trustees meet four times per year to gift most of the earnings from the Endowment. The trustees are approved by the congregation and can serve two consecutive terms for three years each.

The following trustees serve on the board, Liz Nelson-Treasurer, Mike Sergent-Secretary, Andrea Samsa, Nicole Willey and myself Dwayne Shepherd-Chair. The Pastor, church treasurer, and council president may attend the trustee's meeting as ex-officio.

To request a gift, contact the church office to pick up a requisition form. The requisition must be in good order and submitted back to the church office no later than two weeks prior to the next trustee meeting. Meetings are held the fourth Tuesday of January, April, July and October at 7:00 pm. Requests are reviewed and discussed at each meeting to determine if it meets the criteria set forth in the founding documents of the fund.

The trustees look forward to carrying out this valuable mission throughout 2018 and beyond.

Respectfully submitted,

Dwayne Shepherd

A New Year With The Lord

A new year is about to unfold
With new opportunities to explore
Doors will open for new experiences
New adventures with the Lord
Dwell not on the former things
The things of this past year
The Lord will do new things in us
Much more than we are aware
For He will make a way for us
As we put our trust in Him
And He will guide our every step
By His presence we have within
What God has placed within our hearts
We find we'll be able to do
If we look for the opportunities
We'll see the door to go through
We mustn't let anything hold us back
But rise up and take our place
And be all that God wants us to be
With a fresh touch of His grace!

Warming Hearts and So Much More

Thank you for your kind and generous donations of children's underwear for Christmas distribution by T4C (Tuscarawas County Council for Church and Community) to our less fortunate neighborhood children. Your gifts were part of the organization's Share-a-Christmas outreach. Grace members contributed 279 pairs of socks, 196 underpants, seven T-shirts and two sweatshirts during our Undie Sunday collections, November 26 and December 3. Pastor Rice delivered our hefty and heart-warming donations to T4C on December 11.

The total of 484 items is a new record for this holiday giving project. THANK YOU helping our children in need!

Our congregation's generosity was also extended to the Salvation Army's efforts to keep our neighborhood children warm during these cold winter months. A very large collection of mittens, gloves, scarves, hats and other gifts adorned Christmas trees in the narthex and Luther Hall and were donated to this worthy cause on December 11.

Our youth offer their deep appreciation for those who so amiably contributed to the 2018 Youth Mission Trip

Winter Dinner

Celebrate the New Year with hot, home-cooked meal!

Grace Hospitality Ministries is hosting a Winter covered-dish dinner on Sunday, January 14 after the 10:30 a.m. worship service in Fellowship Hall. All are invited to bring a favorite casserole, side dish, dessert or any combination of these to the feast. Hospitality Ministries will provide meat, rolls, beverages and dinnerware.

Deb Foust is the board director. She is ably and cheerfully assisted by Bobbi Cox, Melissa Engstrom, Cindy Jerles, Traci Smith and Sarah Wolfe. Thank you, ladies!

DAILY GRACE

Life is short, and we have only a small window of time to explore the amazing world God has created—the tastes and textures of good food, the astounding beauty of nature, the wonder of human life in all its diversity.

Life is short, and we all hope to live lives that matter, that make the world a better place. It requires zeal to act for justice, to make peace. It takes passion to give ourselves to the common good, to do our small bit for others, to make a fabulous meal. Nothing is accomplished without passion and zeal.

We acknowledge the overwhelming love of God when we share that same love and generosity of spirit for all that God has created. Passion and zeal are responses to the grace and love of God.

GROCERY BAG MINISTRY

Thanks to all who have volunteered to be packers for the Grocery Bag Ministry this year.

Donations to the Food Pantry have increased in response to a greater need for our food bags. In November, we distributed 128 bags, and have already distributed 120 in December. We are seeing a greater demand for this outreach program. Monetary and food donations are very much appreciated.

What goes into a bag to feed the hungry? The basic food items are: peanut butter, canned meat, vegetables, fruit, cereal, soup, macaroni & cheese, canned white potatoes, spaghetti sauce and spaghetti noodles. We also pack a roll of toilet paper and a bar of soap when available.

We welcome all packaged/canned donations. We will pack any kind of soup, fruit, vegetable, soap or toilet paper that is donated, as well as extra items not on the list. Grocery size paper bags are also needed.

Thank you to all who bring food in for the grocery bags that are filled each month. Look in the Sunday bulletins to see which items are most urgently needed.

Please be Praying for...

All those serving in the armed forces, especially Christopher Smith, Seth Erickson, Gerald Case, Richard Martineau.

OUTREACH NEWS... HERE'S YOUR CHANCE TO BE A BLESSING TO OTHERS

We at Grace have volunteered to provide one meal per month — the 4th Sunday of each month — and need volunteers to provide the meal and to deliver it to the Friends of the Homeless of Tuscarawas County which is a group of concerned citizens from various churches and social service agencies in the county who have recognized the need to assist persons experiencing homelessness. The residents eat dinner at 6:00 each evening. All tableware is provided by the shelter, and they ask that if we are just dropping the food off to bring it in disposable pans.

If you are unable to deliver your portion of the meal, please contact someone else who has signed up to deliver food.

Let's continue to work together as the body of Christ and serve our brothers and sisters in need.

New sign up sheets are posted for the February meal to the homeless shelter. Please sign up on the bulletin board in the narthex.

PERSONAL CARE KITS

The power of a small package

Personal Care Kits especially help cleanliness and prevent disease outbreaks that can so frequently happen in foreign countries or right here in the United States after natural disasters. LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF is asking congregation participation to help restock their supply of personal care kits. Consider making a kit or dropping off one or more of the items listed below to the church office. Thanks for helping!

Personal care items that go into each kit are:

Personal Care Kits

- 1 light weight bath towel
- 20" X 40" to 52" X 27" (dark color)
- 2 bath size bars of soap
- 1 wide tooth comb
- 1 adult size toothbrush
- 1 nail clipper with file

Thank you to the volunteers who prepared and delivered food to the Homeless Shelter on December 22nd, 2017.

January's dinner at the Homeless Shelter is on Sunday, Jan. 28th, at 6:00 pm. The sign-up sheet is posted in the Narthex. We have cut down on the expense of the items needed (less meat, more casseroles) or have divided the donations into smaller units to make it financially easier for you to donate. Please check to see how you can help.

Replenishing the Children's Worship Bags

Our worship bag continues to be a blessing to children and parents in our worship each week! Most of the 10 bags are used every Sunday. The bags serve as a way for parents to have their young children in worship with them while they get a chance to worship. We will be purchasing new books, toys and crayons for the bags soon. If you would be interested in providing money for the purchase of these items you may make a donation by placing it in a special offering envelope with worship bags written on it. If paying by check please remember to write Children's Worship Bags in the memo line. Thank you for continuing to support this ministry.
